Good luck!

Mrs. Urban's fifth-grade class lights their candles and reads prayers every Monday.

Mrs. Blood's kindergarten students read from their Advent workbooks on Mondays.

Preschool students made Advent wreaths for display.

Frassati Families,
The past week has been difficult but I have been blessed with your thoughts and prayers. I have avoided the hospital thus far and continue to count the many blessings God has bestowed upon me and my family. Please take care of your families and I look forward to seeing my students very soon.

In Christ,

Mrs. Patrick Sullivan
