

Frassati Catholic Academy
Catholic Schools Week 2019
Information to Know!

We will be celebrating Catholic Schools Week from Saturday, January 26 – Friday, February 1. This packet contains the following information:

- Schedule of events/lunch times
- Permission slip (varies by grade – please read carefully!)*

*All permission slips and fees for Catholic Schools Week are due by Friday, January 18. All forms and fees (including $2 Penny Carnival fee for grades PreK – 5) for each child should be returned together. If you are paying by check, you may pay all fees with one check. Families with multiple children are asked to write one check per child.

We will be collecting donations for two service projects during Catholic Schools Week. If possible, please consider donating to one or both of the following projects listed below.

1. We will be collecting soup and/or other items to be donated to the White Bear Area Emergency Food Shelf. Students will deposit their donations in the box labeled for the team they think will win the "Soup-er" Bowl. Some items on the Food Shelf "Most Wanted" list are provided below.
 - Dish soap
 - Laundry detergent
 - Shampoo/Conditioner – full size
 - Condiments
 - Spices &/or cooking oils
 - Salad dressings
 - Diapers/pull-ups (larger sizes) &/or baby wipes
 - Baby food &/or formula
2. We will be collecting items for our Birthday Box program. Items needed are listed below.
 - Cake mix – white, chocolate, funfetti
 - Canned frosting – white, chocolate, funfetti
 - New coloring books (strong need here!)
 - Books to read (new or very gently used)

We're looking forward to a great week celebrating Frassati Catholic Academy and Catholic education!
